TRIED TO AVOID WRECK

All Efforts to Prevent Railway Disaster Failed After First Mistake.

DEATH LIST NOW TWENTY-EIGHT.

Telegraph Operator Makes a State ment, Claiming He Followed the Orders In Cancelling the First Instructions.

London, Ont., Dec. 29 .- There have been no further deaths reported among the persons injured in the collision at Wanstead, on the Sarnia branch of the Grand Trunk railroad, between the Pacific express westbound and an eastbound frieght, in which 28 persons lost their lives. At Victoria hospital several of the injured are still in a serious condition, but it is expected that all will recover. The body of Fireman Ricketts of the express train, which was believed to be under the wrecked enwas completely torn off and the body was otherwise mangled. Death must have been instantaneous.

Andrew Carson, the operator at Watford, the first station east of the wreck, whose failure to deliver orders to Conductor McAuliffe of the Pacific express to pass the freight at Wanstead is said by the Grand Trunk officials to have caused the wreck, has made his first statement since the wreck. He says he received the order for No. 5 (the express) to pass the freight at Wanstead at 9:48 o'clock, but declares positively that a few minutes later Dispatcher J. G. Kerr at London called him and ordered him to "bust" or cancel the order. He said: "About 9:54, after calling Wyoming and ascertaining that the freight was there, the dispatcher called me rapidly a half-dozen times. When I answered on the wire he told me to 'bust' this order. I wrote 'busted' across the order just as No. 5 was coming in. Conductor McAuliffe came in and asked me what the order board was out against him for. I told him that we had had an order for him, but the dispatcher had 'busted' it. He asked me to hurry and write him a clearance order, which I did. After the train had started and was out of my reach the dispatcher learned that the freight had left Wyoming. I told him I could not stop No. 5, as it had left. He immediately began calling King's Court Junction, the station between Watford and Wanstead, on the railroad wire, and I tried to raise them on a commercial wire. We both failed to do this, however, until after the express had passed the junction."

Carson admitted that he knew it was against the rules of the company to cancel a train order without sending a substitute for it, but said that the dispatcher was his superior officer and he disliked to question his order or dispute his authority to take this action. Dispatcher Kerr's order book in the local Grand Trunk office does not show that the order was "busted" or canceled, as Carson claims. According to the book it was still in force and should have been delivered to the conductor of the express. Kerr has not made any statement, even to the railroad officials, and will not until he takes the stand at the inuqest.

Division Superintendent George G. Jones of Toronto says that the rule against canceling or "busting" train orders is the strictest in the company's code. Grand Trunk officials who were present expressed their confidence in Kerr. Coroner Dr. Harvey of Lambton county will begin the inquest at Wyoming immediately.

The villages are sufficiently provisioned for some time, but the government will be obliged to supply the wants of the working people at Andijan until spring. No one is permitted to enter Andijan without a police pass. Even railroad employes on their way to work are obliged to show permits.

a significant bearing upon the right of labor organizations to maintain or assist in enforcing a boycott was rendered in Judge Vail's court, whereby George Hinchliff was awarded $22,000 damages against the members of the Chicago Masons' and Builders' association and the Brick Manufacturers association. Hinchliff asked for $100. 000 damages, which he alleged he had sustained owing to a boycott of the product of his brickyards at Hobart. Ind., on the part of the associations mentioned in 1898.

VICTORY FOR REBELS.

Ten Thousand Troops Defeated by the Pretender's Forces at Taza.

Famous Swindlers En Route From Madrid to Paris Under Careful Surveillance of French and Spanish Policemen.

Tangier, Morocco, Dec. 29. - On Dec. 22 10,000 Shereefian troops, commanded by a brother of the sultan's minister of war, received orders to concentrate and take the offensive against the pretender at Taza. Before the Shereefians moved upon him the pretender attacked them was large bodies of cavalry. The imperial army was surrounded, completely routed and fled in disorder toward Fez abandoning all material of war. The first fugitives arrived at Fez on the morning of Dec. 24.

The gates of Fez at present are shut; shops there are closed and the population is greatly excited. The European colony of Fez, numbering about 20 persons, appears to be satisfied that it is in no imminent danger although the situation is regarded as serious. It is said that the pretend er's followers have received numer ous additions since his successes. No details of the imperial losses have yet been received, but it is rumored that 2,000 of the sultan's warriors were killed or wounded. The authorities here are trying to minimize the disaster. It is declared that a section of the imperial troops sent as rein forcements deserted to the rebels and aided in driving the loyal troops back

Humberts Being Transported. Paris, Dec. 29.-The train bringing to Paris the members of the Humbert family, who were arrested in Madrid owing to an acident was two hours late at the Spanish frontier, thereby missing connections with the Paris express at Bordeaux. In their anx iety to avoid the assembling of crowds and demonstrations upon the arrival of the Humberts, the authorities here refuse to say at what station the prisoners will leave the train. These precautions probably will be defeated by the delay in arriving, as it now seems probable that the train will reach Paris in broad daylight instead as intended in the darkness of early morning. It is possible that the prisoners will be taken from the train at some station outside the city At Hendaye, on the Spanish frontier the car containing the prisoners was detached from the Madrid train out side the station on the Spanish side of the frontier, and the Humberts were hurried into a French car held in readiness and handed over to the French officials. After this had been done the Spanish police retired. The change of cars was accomplished so rapidly that the waiting crowd barely caught a glimpse of the party, but it Newswriters Injured. Pittsburg, Dec. 29.—The golden jucanoe to capsize and throwing all of bilee of the Passionist Fathers in the United States is being celebrated in the monastery of St. Paul of the Cross. The first session was opened with a solemn blessing of a marble Calvary group over the altar, and a solemn pontifical mass. The blessing of the Calvary group was conducted with much religious pomp. The great crowds attending the jubilee celebration taxed the capacity of the streetcars to and from the monastery, but only one accident of consequence re sulted. Nine passengers in a runaway Southern traction car were badly hurt, but none seriously. Two newspaper men, John M. Eagan of The Times and J. B. Johnson of The Post, suffered the severest injuries. Eagan had two ribs broken and was cut and bruised all over the body; Johnson's head, hands and legs were cut and torn.

ISSUES AN APPEAL.

Powers Asks Aid in His Third Tria on Murder Charge.

Georgetown, Ky., Dec. 29 .- Ex-Sec retary of State Caleb Powers, who has had two trials and now awaits in jail here his third trial for complic ity in the murder of the late Governor William Goebel, has issued the following appeal to the public: "I have recently had written a number of let ters to different states, asking for financial aid in my coming trial for alleged complicity in the Goebel murder. A portion of the press has through a misunderstanding of the facts, attempted to thwart my plan for raising the much-needed money with which to defend myself, by circulating a report that these letters were not genuine, because signed by different persons for me. It is true that many of the letters were signed by different persons, because it was impossible for one person to send them out in the limited time before my next trial, but all of these letters are genuine. I have been continuously in the jails of this state for nearly three years. My means are exhausted. The generosity of Kentucky has been taxed to the utmost in my former so-called trials. In a few weeks I am again to be tried for my life, hence my appeal now to my friends outside of Kentucky."

Minister Combs' Instructions. Washington, Dec. 29.-The new United States minister to Guatemala Leslie Combs of Louisville, has received his final instructions from the state department. The relations between the United States and Guatemala and Honduras were explained fully to him, as were other diplomatic matters. The case of W. Godfrey Hunter, Jr., who shot and killed Wil liam Fitzgerald in Guatemala City re cently, was also considered, the position of the department being made clear to Mr. Combs. The department is holding aloof in the matter, and Hunter having waived all diplomatic immunities, the attitude of the government will be one of quiescence. A new secretary of legation, probably a Kentuckian, will be appointed to succeed James G. Bailey of Kentucky, who is to be retired on account of his connection with the Hunter case.

Transport Strikes a Rock.

Manilla, Dec. 29. - The United States army transport Sherman struck a rock near San Bernardino light, south of Luzon. The transport sustained a heavy shock and some of her plates were damaged. After the accident 23 inches of water was found in her forward bilges, but was controlled by steady pumping. The steamer proceeded for Manilla under her own steam and has arrived here When the Sherman struck the passengers on board were terrified, but there was no disorder. They prompt ly took their stations, with life preservers on, in the small boats. The officers of the Sherman handled the situation splendidly. Her cargo was not damaged. It probably will be necessary for her to dock at Hongkong Believed Fatally Wounded. Louisville, Dec. 29.-William A Schumaker and Chauncey Schumaker his brother, were shot through the in testines and it is believed fatally wounded by Ed Garrity. There were no witnesses to the shooting. It is admitted by the Schumakers that they went to Garrity's place of employment to chastise him for insulting William A. Schumaker's wife. Garrity claims that he did not insult the woman, but claims that the Schumakers visited the shop where he is employed and beat him with a slungshot.

"Pathfinder's" Wife Dead.

Los Angeles, Dec. 29.—Mrs. Jessie Benton Fremont, widow of General Fremont, died at her home in this city. She was 78 years of age. Mrs. Fremont was taken ill on Christmas morning. For the past three years the aged widow of the "Pathfinder" had been extremely feeble as a result of a fall in which she suffered dislocation of the hip, which has since prevented her from walking. Mrs. Fremont was the daughter of Thomas H. Benton, for 30 years a senator in the United States senate.

Ponce Honors Dewey.

Ponce, P. R., Dec. 29.-Admiral Dewey arrived here overland from San Juan and received an ovation. He was warmly greeted by a committee of native officials and citizens and was escorted by them from Juana Diaz to Ponce. The city was decorated in honor of the admiral's arrival, which was followed by a procession with bands of music through the streets. Later the admiral boarded the United States ship Mayflower, which was waiting for him, and sailed for Culebra.

OFFICIALS SATISFIED

Threatening Aspects of the Venezuelas Case Have Been Passed.

SOME HITOHES, BUT NO FRICTION.

Protocol Will Doubtless Be Signed In Washington by Representatives of Nations Involved - Question of Blockade.

Washington, Dec. 29.-A feeling of satisfaction prevails in official circles here in regard to the Venezuelan affair, and it is the general belief that the incident has lost all its threatening aspects, and that the details preceding arbitration can be arranged without friction. The weight of of ficial opinion here was that several days at least must elapse before any. thing in the nature of a preliminary protocol incident to arbitration of the Venezuelan trouble can be made ready for signature.

Germany's insistence upon a prepayment of 10 per cent of her full claims before submitting her case to arbitration, and perhaps President Castro's resistance to meeting what the allies regard as the obligations of honor, are believed to be now the sticking points. But it is hoped that these can be passed within the next few days, and it is further hoped that some arrangement will be made in the preliminary protocol for the raising of the blockade, though it is intimated that the allied ships will be kept ready to renew it in case of any default on the part of Venezuela in her obligations.

Washington having been the pivot about which all the negotiations have turned up to this point, it is surmised that it may also be the scene of the final act in the shape of the signature of the preliminary protocol, either by the resident representatives here of the powers interested or by special agents sent to this neutral ground for the purpose.

Substance of Roosevelt's Note.

Rome, Dec. 29.-Ambassador Meyer presented to the foreign office President Roosevelt's note on the subject of Venezuelan arbitration. The president says although he is very gratified at the confidence the powers have shown in him by choosing him as arbitrator, which position he would have accepted if there were no other means of solving the question, he thinks it better to submit the case to The Hague tribunal, especially as all the powers concerned are willing. The president adds that, as there is no question of national honor or cession of territory involved, after thorough consideration and in accord with all the powers concerned, who have shown an honorable spirit of mutual consideration and moderation, he is glad to be informed that they all have agreed to submit the question to The Hague tribunal.

Germany Disappointed.

Berlin, Dec. 29 .- The German government is disappointed by President Roosevelt's declination to be arbitrator in the Venezuelan dispute, but in pursuance of his decision will correspond at once with Great Britain and Italy on the subsidiary questions that must now be agreed upon, such as raising the blockade and the definite form of request whereby Venezuela on one side and Germany, Great Britain and Italy on the other, who ask The Hague tribunal to adjudge the dispute. The interchange of views on these and other requirements probably will take place at Washington , where the ambassadors can confer freely with Secretary Hay and obtain through him President Castro's assent to the precise propositions.

Take Arms Against Castro. Willemstad, Curacao, Dec. 29 .- The

Venezuelan revolutionists have resumed active hostilities against President Castro. There has occurred a lively engagement between 1,200 revolutionists under General Riera and government forces at Cauyarao, in the vicinity of Coro. Details of the engagement are lacking, but it is known here that the revolutionists had artillery. The government forces were commanded by General Refereno Castillo. General Riera retained his position. The armistice between the government and the recolutionists has just expired.

Willemstad, Cucacao, Dec. 29 .-News has reached here from an authoritative source in Caracas that Vicente Gomez, first vice president of the republic, intends to carry out a bold strategic stroke against President Castro.

With the passing of the old year, Maysville should ring in the movement for modern thoroughfares.

WITH such a prudent and careful business man as Mayor Stallcup at the head of municipal affairs, the work of improving our streets can be safely undertaken.

THE attempt to organize committees, as auxiliaries to the Kentucky Exhibit Association, in all counties has brought out one fact prominently, it is reported, and that is that but one sentiment exists: "Kentucky must be represented and adequately at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition." Every letter that reaches the headquarters of the association contains encouraging words. The people of Kentucky must do what their Legislature failed to do-provide for a thorough exhibit of the State's unexampled resources.

AT Covington, the wife of Barton Stuntebeck was removed to the pest house while about to become a mother. She died shortly after the birth of her child, and her relatives will probably sue the city for heavy damages, claiming that the rough treatment she was subjected to, and the dilapidated condition of the pest house caused her death. When some city or county is forced to pay heavy damages in cases like this, suitable hospitals will likely be provided for the reception and care of people so unfortunately afflicted. Such health officers, too, as these at Covington should be taught to exercise a little common sense in cases like the one mentioned.

A WRITER in an article on the operations of the coal trust says:

The criminal section of the anti-trust law covers just such a restraint of trade and monopoly as the coal trust is imposministration of that law is in the hands of the Attorney General of the United States, and in each State the United States District Attorneys can enforce the law in the federal courts. Thus the whole machinery for bringing the coal monopolists to the bar of justice can be put in motion by the Republican administration. One word from President Roosevelt would compel his Attorney General to act. As he does nothing to curb the monopoly, it would seem certain that he does not want any action taken, or, for political reasons, does not wish the extortion of the trust stopped. The criminal statute would allow the arrest of the coal barons and upon conviction of being parties to any restraint of trade, or of having formed a combination to control prices, they could be imprisoned for one A coal baron in jail would soon bring him and his brother robbers to terms, and the price of coal would soon tumble.

While not wishing to snuff the candlelight of primitive days or wipe out one iota of sentiment that clusters around the illustrious past, still there is a new Kentucky, that is overshadowing all else. The rays of a twentieth century sun are breaking through the State's roof.

For the purpose of presenting to the world a true picture of the new Kentucky, the Kentucky Exhibit Association has been organized. The failure of the General Assembly at its last session to make an appropriation for a Kentucky building and a full display of Kentucky's products and resources at this Universal Exposition left the State without a leg to stand on in the great race for Statehood commercial and industrial supremacy. Let us be brief and come to the point at once. The cause of a cut-price sale does not concern the public. It may be too many goods, it may be the need of money. No matter what the cause, the one thing the public IS interested in is the price.

On Tuesday morning we begin our cut-price sale. Every Suit in the house, excepting blacks and blues, will be sold at 20 per cent. off from our regular price. All of our Stein Bloch, Adler Bros and Garson Meyer Suits are included in the sale, consequently you can secure a suit of the peerless make of the above mentioned manufacturers at less money than ordinary made Clothing.

The stock is in such shape that everyone can be "Suited" and "Overcoated." The smallest and largest can be fitted. We want to say to the laggards, who may think there will be a further cut, that there will be none.

It is almost needless, indeed it would most be an affront, to say to our people that our cut sales are "straight." No juggling with figures, no closing the store to mark down stock. All of our goods are marked in plain figures; deduct 20 per cent. and you arrive at the CASH price.

Lexington Gamblers Will Likely Draw Terms in the Penitentiary.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Dec. 29.—As a result of the recent crusade of the churches and istrator of Henry Bramel, with W. H. representative people of the city, the grand jury made public, late Saturday afternoon, its list of indictments against the gamblers. The list includes thirtysix counts, and takes in nearly all of the nomination for Governor. operators in the city.

The indictments caused the greatest consternation because, in this instance, nearly all of them charge felony, whereas heretofore they only charged misdemeanor. Under the old regime they paid again paying their fines and resuming business.

Under the present conditions, most of them stand to "draw" terms in the penitentiary, and the situation has thrown the gamblers' element into dire confusion.
